ASBESTOS REMOVAL

Christensen Industries Pty Ltd will be completing Asbestos Removal in the old principal’s residence on Monday 30 June, 2014. There is to be no access granted on Monday to the entire school grounds while the removal is underway.

GIN GIN DISTRICT SPORTS DAY FRIDAY 25 JULY

Once again this year, Gin Gin District Athletics is all on one day. The date is set for Friday 25 July (2nd week of Term 2). Students born in 2005 do not compete at Gin Gin. Only placegetters from our Sports Day will be competing with some qualifying distances applying in Discus & Shot Put.

Qualifiers from the Gin Gin carnival will then represent Gin Gin District Schools at the Bundaberg Zone Athletics in Bundaberg on Thursday, 6 August & Friday, 7 August.

Students will receive more information on who is going, along with the travel details, once the Gin Gin results are finalised next term.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Instruction money is now past due. Please place money in a school collection envelope marked with your name/names, put “Religious Education” on the front and place it in your classroom collection box.

Lesson workbooks are provided at a cost of $5 per child or $10 per family.

TALLEBUDGERA CAMP

Students from Years 5, 6 & 7 were given a note 2 weeks ago with information about their Tallebudgera Camp running from Monday, 10 November through to Friday, 14 November.

So that I can finalise camp costs and let Tallebudgera know how many children are attending, I desperately need the permission form, attached to this note, returned to me as soon as possible.

Tallebudgera Note? What Tallebudgera note? I didn’t get a note about Tallebudgera. While all children in years 5 to 7 were given a note, it can still be a challenge to get it home. If the Tallebudgera note hasn’t yet arrived, please look for a copy on our website at https://sharonss.eq.edu.au. Just go to “Support and Resources”, choose “Forms & Documents”, then “Documents”, choose the folder “General notes” and you should see a PDF document with the name: Tal 2014 Pre-Permission-Drop Deposit Letter
BARAMBAH CAMP

Well, we’re back from our amazing adventures at the Barambah Environmental Education Centre and our highlights never stopped. We enjoyed the bush walk to One Tree Hill and down into the rain forest. The food was spectacular, we never felt like we needed more after a delicious breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Steve and Peter were excellent guides. They talked to us about the Aboriginal history and what they used to do. In one of the lessons, we tried to hunt cardboard animals such as emu, kangaroo and small birds. We used spears, rocks and boomerangs. We had a Clan Challenge and the scores were very close.

- 1st - Echidnas
- 2nd - Possums
- 3rd - Goannas
- 4th - Dingos

We may have only stayed for two nights but everyone enjoyed themselves whether we were doing crosswords or learning about Aboriginal culture and lifestyle.

SMILE AWHILE

Q: Why didn’t the oyster share the profits from his pearl?
A: He was shellfish.

Q: What day of the week tastes the best?
A: Sunday!

Q: What do you get if you cross a cocker spaniel, a poodle and a rooster?
A: Cockerpoodledoo!

Q: Why do dogs run in circles?
A: Because it’s hard to run in squares!

HAPPY HOLIDAY!

Enjoy the holidays with your family and have a happy but safe time. We’ll see everyone back refreshed on Monday 14 July. Remember that Monday 14 July is NOT a Pupil Free Day.

Kind regards,
